& SESI STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

A large group of students, mostly young men and women, are gathered in a large hall. They are wearing orange and black uniforms, suggesting they are part of a school or organization. The students are arranged in many rows, filling most of the floor. The floor is covered with a blue and yellow patterned carpet. In the background, there are rows of empty chairs, indicating a formal event or assembly. The overall atmosphere is one of a large-scale gathering or competition.

PELAJAR ANTARABANGSA MEMILIH MALAYSIA

QUALITY (VALUE FOR MONEY):

"Not only are costs relatively low, but the quality of Malaysian higher education is seen to be good, yielding a growing perception that higher education in Malaysia represents value for money."

QUALITY OF LIFE:

"Malaysia offers a good quality of life; it is widely regarded as a comfortable place to live and study."

LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION:

"Most instruction is offered in english, which is viewed as offering better access to international employment opportunities."

CULTURAL COMFORT:

"Malaysia provides a friendly environment for students. For example, Muslim students can study in country in which Muslim values and practices are understood, widely-shared and respected."

COST:

"Relative to the cost of higher education in traditional destination countries (the United States, the United Kingdom and Australia), the cost of undergraduate and graduate degree programmes in Malaysia are a bargain."
